PO Box 91355
Albuquerque, New Mexico 87199
United States

The New Mexico Corvette Association (NMCA) was formed in 1962 and began its journey with Ed Blacks' Chevrolet on Lomas NE in Albuquerque, NM. Jack House was the first President, and is currently active with the Atomic Corvette Club in Los Alamos. NMCA is dedicated to the enjoyment, knowledge and intrigue which surrounds the

Corvette brand and its loyal owners. NMCA follows suit with the saying "You join for the car, you stay for the people". Membership figures tend to remain in the 125-140 range. Throughout the years this organization has strived to afford a wide variety of activity options to the membership. From shows, caravans and social events to autocrosses, drags and full-fledged racing, NMCA covers the spectrum of enjoyment to be had involving a Corvette. Members range from the novice casual Corvette owner to the serious seasoned professional. NMCA is proud to be recognized as a member of the National Council of Corvette Clubs (NCCC). By adhering to national guidelines for safety and procedures, NMCA maximizes the entertainment and "fun factor" to everyone's benefit. Individuals serious about national competition can rely on NMCA to provide annual events which receive national recognition and points.
