Strictly Vettes hope to leave a legacy for upcoming car clubs to follow. Strictly Vettes formula for success is to combine cars and strong character and share resources and reach out to corvette and non-corvette car clubs and exchange ideas, and explore what other other clubs has to offer. Echoing a new voice to cars the team of Strictly Vettes has touched every aspect of the hurting conditions of a community reaching out for help. We believe that a community is only as good as the people serving it, and we want to do our part to make Memphis a better place economically and socially for the children who live in Memphis, knowledge is the key to empower us all to serve on a higher level than expected and we expect great & excellent results from our labor, We can't save the world but we can surely do our part and try. Filled with community activities, their club is unified through cook outs, community engagements, and advocacy. Bringing self confidence, self awareness to young boys & girls and promoting Good Health within the African American community, Strictly Vettes shares a brilliant magnitude of enrichment by taking the America's favorite car and endeavoring it to become a combination of change and recognition to charity. By creating strong partnerships with other Corvette & Non Corvette Clubs and Corporate leaders, and community organizations, Strictly Vettes has touched thousands of lives, and aim to open doors that redefine the representation of car clubs everywhere. Strictly Vettes is now an Award Winning Corvette Club with Maurice Woodard the President winning the "2012 Man of the Year Award" / Strictly Vettes involvement with St. Jude Ronald McDonald House warranted the "2012 Volunteers Award" and the "2013 Spirit of Giving Award was given in April". June 29, 2013 Strictly Vettes partner with Mid-South Camaro Club and was awarded a Proclamation from the City of Memphis for all the work Strictly Vettes has done in the Memphis Community. Involved, engaged, and determined, this club has captured the true essence of leadership behind the wheel. Strictly Vettes has established a lane of its very own and branded a lifestyle of leadership through Corvettes.
