

International Council of Corvette Clubs

South Carolina
United States

ICCC is a 501(c)(7) organization comprised of numerous Corvette Clubs from as far East as South Carolina and far West as Texas. Our preamble is to promote participation in Corvette oriented activities and to enhance the enjoyment connected with the ownership of the Corvette for its members. To encourage and assist with the development of Corvette Clubs on a local level. ICCC was formed to maintain organizational consistency among member clubs and to develop financial assistance to member clubs.
